Neonatology is a subspecialty of pediatrics that consists of the medical care of newborn infants, especially the ill or premature newborn. It is a hospital-based specialty, and is usually practiced in neonatal intensive care units (NICUs). The principal patients of neonatologists are newborn infants who are ill or require special medical care due to prematurity, low birth weight, intrauterine growth restriction, congenital malformations (birth defects), sepsis, pulmonary hypoplasia or birth asphyxia.

The Neonatology 2020 Conference is an event that aims to improve health of the child with growing research and technology and to find new possibilities for better health and development of neonates and pediatrics at France Pediatrics conference on August 21-22, 2020. The conference will serve as a platform to bring together leading Pediatricians, Scientists and Neonatologists with different specialties such as Pediatric neurology, Pediatric oncology, Neonatal Nursing, Neonatal Nutrition, Pediatrics Surgery and Pediatric Nephrology and Urology etc. Neonatology and Perinatology Congress will discuss on the topics such as Child health, Pediatric Infectious diseases, Breast feeding, Diagnosis and Neonatal care etc.

Neonatology Meetings 2020 supported by the organizing committee network and Speakers of renowned scientific and professional expert such as Igor Klepikov, USA, Jamal Omar, King Fahad Medical City, Saudi Arabia, Krzysztof Piotrowski, DIAGEN co., Poland, Yakub Mathai, India, it provided a platform for collaboration among colleagues, vendors, and academia to reveal new innovations, solutions, ideas, and emerging technologies in Pediatrics.

Globally, the number of pediatricians varies by country. More developed countries have more pediatricians, but emerging countries are training more doctors. Still, there is a severe shortage of trained pediatricians around the world. About 60,000 general pediatricians and 30,000 pediatric subspecialists practice in the US, according to the American Medical Association.

Global Pediatrics Conferences going to be held during January, 2020 to December, 2020 at various cities in Europe (London, Barcelona, Madrid, Valencia, Rome, Milan, Berlin, Frankfurt, Vienna, Zurich, Dublin, Edinburgh.... And Many More...!!!.
